THE WILDY FAMILY

Their Ancestral Tree

Wildi

Schafisheim

THE ORIGINALS of the coat of arms of the Wildi family of Schafisheim shown on page 111 and that of the community of Schafisheim, Switzerland (above) were drawn by hand by a first class artist on parchment.

In the case of the Wildi coat of arms you see on the blue escutcheon (shield) two golden stars and a moon. The stars are a sign of the mind (spirit); the moon is the sign of travelling merchants. In the center is a silver plowshare; it is the sign of the farmer, who with his plow tills the field.

Below you see three small green mountains; they signify that those people, your ancestors, were on their own real estate. The coat of arms is from the year 1720 and is located in the State Archives of Canton Aargau, Switzerland, and was recorded by Friedrich Wildi, (Vogt) Official of Schafisheim, Canton Aargau, Switzerland. The Coat of Arms is also painted on the Evangelical Protestant Church pulpit since the year 1720, Staufberg, Canton Aargau, Switzerland.

The coat of arms of the community of Schafisheim, Switzerland, is a silver sheep on a red field, since 1811.

FOREWORD

This book became a reality after many years of search. The undertaking of compiling and editing a book of this nature was something new in our field of work. It was only after careful consideration, prayer and planning, that the name, "The Wildy Family — 1500 - 1955 — Their Ancestral Tree," was launched. Its title describes the interest, experience, and achievement that bears witness to the shaping of a book of this nature, for all who can read.

As the name implies, it is a book of clean, wholesome, old and new ideals, featuring, namely — family registers — photographs — migration records — comforting passages of scriptures — favorite sacred hymns — churches — things many may have overlooked these busy days.

We will not need to comment on any parts of the book. You will discover them for yourself, by following the sketch numbers of the family register. The book is truly a beautiful library keepsake that you will cherish, keep and enjoy for many years. Sincerity, courage, truth, devotion are beautiful. These qualities added to this book make it a fine piece of work and one that belongs in every family library, for the grown-ups as well as the children.

We acknowledge our appreciation to all who responded so graciously in this work. Prayerfully, we bid you to pray with us "The Lord's Prayer" After this manner therefore pray ye:

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen. Matthew 6:9-13 who so generously assisted us, in various ways, in making the work of this book thorough and complete, we beg to express our grateful thanks and appreciation of same, trusting that you will approve our labors, and give the book a generous reception.

TO OUR MANY CONTRIBUTORS

THE GOOD SHEPHERD

TWENTY THIRD PSALM

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

INTRODUCTION

The incidents, manners and customs of frontier life in the country once called the "Far West" — later the valley of the "Great River," the true aboriginal name of the Mississippi River, are interesting to all classes. The historical events and labors of good people, in works of faith and labors of love, by the early pioneers of this valley, cannot fail to attract the attention of young persons in the family circle, and children in the schools and churches.

Once the West was everything outside of the Atlantic Coast. Prior to 1700 all Americans lived on the sea coast. Only a handful of adventurers dared to go beyond that.

American expansion marked a real milestone in the year 1763. A government road was built from the Potomac to Wheeling, near the Ohio River. This wagon road opened up a vast territory for settlement.

In 1783, seven years after the Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1776, Congress accepted the vast territory, known as the Territory Northwest of the Ohio River. General Arthur St. Clair was appointed Governor and Commander-in-Chief over this territory. In 1800 this territory was cut in twain, and the Territory of Indiana was organized. In 1803 the State of Ohio was admitted to the Union. In 1809 the Territory of Illinois was organized. In 1816 the State of Indiana was admitted to the Union.

As the population grew it was decided to divide the territory into counties, and the area from the Lakes in the north to the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers in the south and the west was established. This area was given the name St. Clair County in honor of the first Governor.

Thus St. Clair County is the oldest county in the State of Illinois, although subsequent detachments of land to form the total of 103 counties has greatly reduced its size, during the intervening years. In 1818 the State of Illinois was admitted to the Union.

Another important event was the Louisiana Purchase, December, 1803, for $15,000,000. From now on it became evident that the United States must expand to the Pacific Coast. In considering the growth of our country and the movement of the population westward we must understand and consider that the people wanted land of their own and they wanted permanent titles to this land.

With the Harrison Land Act passed in 1800, the United States became a partner with everyone that bought land. Government land intended for sale was laid out in quarter sections of 160 acres, and after being advertised for a certain time was offered for sale at public auction. What was not sold could then be purchased at the land office of the district at two dollars an acre, a quarter to be paid down, and three fourths before the expiration of four years, on the installment plan, and where the state could not tax their farms until five years after the government had given them a title deed.

The emigrant, after paying the first payment would make his way in the two horse wagon containing his family and his worldly goods to the spot where was to be his future home. Every foot of it in all probability would be covered with bushes and trees. In this case the settler would cut down saplings and make a "half-faced Camp," and then begin his clearing. The "half-faced Camp" was a shed, three sides were of logs laid one on another horizontally, the roof was of saplings covered with branches or bark, the fourth side was open, closed, whenever necessary, with deer skin curtains.

In this camp the newcomer and his family lived, while he grubbed up the bushes and cut down trees enough to build a log cabin.

It is with a deep and reverent sense of confidence and gratitude that we present our book, "The Wildy Family — 1500-1955 — Their Ancestral Tree."

Confidence because we know in our hearts that you will find here the "Family Registers" of the ancestors and descendants of the early pioneers who greeted a new dawn in one of their favorite spots on earth, the rich fertile prairie land with scattered timbers and streams, east of the Kaskaskia (Okaw) River, where they established their future home, known as Dutch Hill Prairie, (formerly Deutsch Huegel, New Aargau), Lenzburg Township, St. Clair County, Illinois, United States of America.

Pioneers emigrating from Canton Aargau, Switzerland to this area are: Bernard Steiner, "First Swiss Pioneer," emigrated 1800-1810, the only son and second youngest of seven children. He purchased four sections, 2560 acres of land from the government at Kaskaskia, the Land Office of the District for this area. He had gone to France and Switzerland a number of times for merchandise. When he returned on his last trip to Switzerland in 1817, he brought three of his sisters with their families to America; Rudolf and Anna Maria (nee Steiner) Wildi, with seven children; Jacob and Barbara (nee Steiner) Hardi, with four children; Rudolf and Susanna (nee Steiner) Baumann — second marriage, Samuel and Susanna (nee Steiner) Wildi. They arrived in this area, January 7, 1818. (The fathers of Rudolf and Samuel Wildi were brothers.)

On June 1, 1821, a nephew, Peter and Susannah Baumann, with one child, migrated to this country, arrived January 7, 1822. He is the son of Peter and Elizabeth (nee Steiner) Baumann.

The above families wended their way from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, where they had landed, across the Allegheynies, across the states of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois to the Kaskaskia River, where they made their future home on the land he, Bernard Steiner (also spelled Stiner), had purchased.

Pioneers emigrating from Germany to this area are: Peter and Barbara (nee Kempf) Schneider, with five children, arrived October 1838. Their married daughter, Valentine Carl and Katharina (nee Schneider) Deichmann, with five children, arrived 1843; Jacob Frederick and Margaretha (nee Faber) Trauh, with two children, arrived spring 1847; Eva Elisa (Elizabeth) Steinert, arrived 1852, she married Henry Schneider, son of Peter and Barbara (nee Kempf) Schneider, February 4, 1853; her brother, John Nicholaus Steinert, arrived 1853, he married Regina Wildi, April 26, 1859, daughter of Frederich and Margaretha (nee Bald) Wildi, granddaughter of Rudolf and Anna Maria (nee Steiner) Wildi. The above emigrants from Germany disembarked at New Orleans, Louisiana, sailed up the Mississippi River to St. Louis, Missouri, then settled in this area, St. Clair County. John Steinert landed at St. Anthony Falls, Minnesota, 1853. He married Elisa Baumann, July 27, 1857, later moved to East St. Louis, St. Clair County, Illinois.

These pioneers knew whatever the situation or condition may be at the moment, they would find life good and see in it much beauty and loveliness. They found difficulties and dangers, problems and seemingly insurmountable obstacles in the path all their life. But with faith and courage, they faced them, managing to climb over or around them, with an understanding spirit, that, at his best, Man is in touch with a Higher Being than himself, who is the well-spring of an increasing strength and mighty power in life. Where there is no vision the people perish, points upon a simple fact of history that progress has never been due to mass-verdict but to individual pioneers. The scattered timber with its stately trees, the prairie land, the river, and the vastness of it almost baffled the first settlers. But such pioneers, flamed with a moral vision and lured on by the spirit of adventure of which their ancestors knew little or nothing, finally by slow degrees, bridged the rivers and made the fields increase their yield.

Gratitude is the major spring from which evangelistic zeal flows. It is wonderful to consider the on-going work of each generation, in the light of the deep, deep past. We are so deeply indebted to our ancestors, who have preceded us, that there is no way to "work it out," except by giving ourselves to the "now" and the future.

THE CHRISTIAN HOME

Author unknown

Happy the home when God is there,
And love fills every breast;
When one their wish and one their prayer,
And one their heavenly rest.
Happy the home where Jesus' name,
Is sweet to every ear;
Where children early lisp his fame,
And parents hold him dear.

Happy the home where prayer is heard,
And praise is wont to rise;
And parents love the sacred word,
And live but for the skies.
Lord, let us in our home agree,
This blessed peace to gain;
Unite our hearts in love to thee,
And love to all will reign.

HOUSEHOLD LOVE

by John B. S. Monsell

O love, divine and tender!
That through our homes doth move,
Veiled in the softened splendor
Of holy household love:
A throne, without thy blessii,
Were labor without rest,
And cottages, possessing
Thy blessedness, are blest.

God bless these hands united,
God bless these hearts made one;
Unsevered and unblighted
May they through life go on:
Here, in earth's home, preparing
For the bright home above,
And there, forever sharing Its joy,
Where "God is love."

WE LOVE THE VENERABLE HOUSE

by Ralph Waldo Emerson

We love the venerable house,
Our Fathers built to God;
In heaven are kept their grateful vows,
Their Dust endears the sad.
Here holy thoughts a light have shed,
From many a radiant face,
And prayers of humble virtue spread
The perfume of the place.
And anxious hearts have pondered here,
The mystery of life:
And prayed th' Eternal Light to clear
Their doubts and aid their strife.

Such heroes, giving something of their power, trust and decision are the lightning conductors of Eternal Goodness. Who, for the joy endured the cross — Allelnia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

With Confidence and Gratitude, we present
"The Wildy Family 1500-1955, Their Ancestral Tree."

My mother — Traub deceased — died ten years later, 1862, Basigheim, Germany.

Three children (two daughters, one son) born to above union:

Daughter — Margaretha Traub — married Christian Huber, a carpenter, October 31, 1852. My father died the following Sunday.

I had twelve births, one a set of twins, thirteen children, of which four are deceased. The nine children living are all hale and hearty, eight daughters and one son.

Our oldest daughter working at Heilbron, Wirtemberg, Germany, will marry this year.

Our second oldest daughter is married, and lives here. Her husband is a smith, and can do most anything in that line of work. Two of our daughters work at Bietigheim, Germany.

Our only son graduated from school last year. He now works with his father, also is a shoemaker.

One daughter will finish school next Spring.

Our youngest daughter will start school next school term.

Daughter — Louisa Traub — married George Sitzenberger, and they emigrated to America either in 1862 or 1863. Their address is 133 Humboldt St., Detroit, Michigan, U.S.A.

Son — Ludwig (Louis) Traub — also emigrated to America either in 1862 or 1863. His address is 522 Madson Street, Detroit, Michigan, U.S.A. Louisa is my sister and Ludwig my brother.

Father's Brother

Traub — who was a tailor, married and settled at Kleinsachsenheim, Germany. They were blessed with four children, (one daughter and three sons). He (father) is deceased. He died nine or ten years ago, and his wife some four years ago. The children are all by his second marriage. His wife of the first marriage died young, and there was no child by that union.

Father's Youngest Brother

Traub — stays with us, and worked for us during the Winter months. He is now 64 years old.

The letter, giving the above information, was written to her cousin, Jacobine Margaretha (nee Traub) Wildy, daughter of Jacob Frederick and Margaretha (nee Faber) Traub, Dutch Hill Prairie, Section 2, Lenzburg Township, St. Clair County, Illinois, U.S.A. With gratitude and love, Your cousin, Address — Christian and Margaretha (nee Traub) Huber, Wetterzimmera, Basigheim, Germany.

CHRIST'S SERMON ON THE MOUNT

Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for their's is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

BERNARD STEINER

The first Swiss Pioneer, on (Deutsch-Huegel) Dutch Hill Prairie, Section 10, Lenzburg Township, St. Clair County, Illinois, U.S.A.

Bernard Steiner – born July 8, 1781, Duerrenaesch Leutwil, Suhr, Canton Aargau, Switzerland, the only son of Bernard and A. Maria (nee Baumann) Steiner. He was a carpenter by trade, at Neuchatel, Switzerland. In 1800-1810 he embarked at Antwerpen, Belgium. In 1810, he migrated from Amsterdam, Holland to America, landing in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, U.S.A.

Being a man of considerable energy and enterprise, he entered the mercantile business, for a living. He sold clocks, musical instruments, and many other things which he bought from LeLoche, in Jura, Switzerland. He made his second trip to Juradorf, Switzerland in 1814, for more merchandise. On his third trip, he mailed a letter at Amsterdam, Holland, dated October 30, 1815, to his relatives, who remained at Schalisheim, Hunzenschwil, Duerrenaesch, Suhr, Canton Aargau, Switzerland, encouraging them to come to America. The following year, he mailed another letter at New York City, New York, U.S.A., dated July 28, 1816, and he wrote (quoting parts only) "America is the best country in the World. I wish that all my sisters and brothers-in-law and other good friends would come and be seen in America. The Land of Liberty — The Land of Opportunity. I will be willing to buy a number of sections of land, covered with scattered timber, from the government. I met a countryman at Washington, D. C., a Berner who is a writer for the government. He informed me well, describing the situation and conditions in full, where and how, to invest for such land. In a few months, next spring 1817, I will go to Europe, for the last time, and if you are willing, and make arrangements to return with me, I will help you through the journey. I especially invite you, sister Anna Maria and family to come. It will be a long hard journey for your little (seven) children, but for that he would provide. I will surely help you as a true brother. I must close, friendly greetings to you all. I remain your faithful brother, until death. (Bernard Steiner.)"

In the year 1815, Bernard Steiner, filled with faith, hope and love in the country of his adoption, wended his way on foot, on horseback, and in covered wagon, from the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, where he had landed, across the Allegheny Mountains, across the States of Ohio, Indiana, and the prairie lands of Illinois, until he arrived on the banks of the (Okaw) Kaskaskia River.

As he gazed over the fertile prairie farm lands covered with scattered timber, and the wooded streams beneath the blue skies, he quickly realized that he had found a fit habitation, not only for himself, but also for his relatives and friends, who like himself when offered such a privilege, would love and understand the wondrous beauty of this country.

His pleasant dreams of newly erected log cabins over this area where helping one's fellowman for daily living – where the laughter of happy children would be sweeter music than the clinking of coins —where the sight of a sunrise seems more beautiful than a mansion, with this inspiration, he determined to possess it and entered claim for a number of sections of land.

In 1816, he again crossed the States, making his way to Kaskaskia, Illinois, where he made payments on his possessions with earnest money.

In the Spring 1817, he made his last trip to Switzerland, Europe. Upon returning to America, he brought several families along, amongst them three of his sisters, arriving in the U.S.A. on January 7, 1818. They were namely – Rudolf and Anna Maria (nee Steiner) Wildi, and seven children; Jacob and Barbara (nee Steiner) Haerdi and four children; Rudolph and Susanna (nee Steiner) Baumann; Samuel Wildi; a Mrs. Sparr and her son, forming the "Swiss Settlement" on (Deutsch Huegel) Dutch Hill Prairie, Lenzburg Township, St. Clair County, Illinois. A few years later, through Steiner's influence, his nephew, Peter Baumann and wife Susanna Baumann with their daughter migrated June 1, 1821 from Lenzbourgh, near Aarau, Aare Canton, Aargau, Switzerland, arriving St. Clair County, Illinois, January 7, 1822, joining the Swiss Settlement, on Dutch Hill Prairie, Lenzburg Township, St. Clair County, Illinois, U.S.A.

He is the son of Peter and Elizabeth (nee Steiner) Baumann, who remained in Switzerland.

In 1821, Bernard Steiner started on horseback to Kaskaskia, Illinois, to complete payments on the land he had entered. On his way, he was intercepted, and killed, his body being found sometime during the night near a cabin.

When his relatives learned of his untimely death, his body was obtained and buried in a beautiful walnut-pine forest, near his log cabin home, Dutch Hill, Section 10, Lenzburg Township, St. Clair County, Illinois, near the present site of Zion Methodist Episcopal Church and Cemetery. No marker nor tree remains to mark "Bernard Steiner," the pioneer's grave.

Bernard Steiner remained single. His fiance and her parents migrated from Switzerland to America, but the wedding to be solemnized in the U.S.A. did not materialize. They did not reach the shores of America. Day by day he took his cross and carried it cheerfully, administering to those about him, and in the minds of his relatives, friends and their descendants, he left the memory of a good man, a leader, a pioneer.

The reward Christ offers us for our suffering and sacrifice is a happy heart — a contented mind, peace and quietnesss within, and a life with our eternal Father forever.

DER ERSTE SCHWEIZER auf dem DEUTSCH-HUEGEL

Poem written in German about Bernard Steiner, born July 8, 1781.

Kam ein Schweizer in das Land:
Blieb wo ers am Schoensten fand.
Heimat gruendete alsbald,
Auf der Hoehe nah dem Wald.

Nicht Lateiner, aber Schreiner,
Dieser Schweizer, namens Steiner,
Sah in dieser Gegend Pracht;
Drum hat er seine Leut' gebracht.

In der alten Staat-geshicht,
Kan man lesen den Bericht,
Wie sich dieser Pionier
Siedelte in Wildness hier.

In der Aargau, unverdrossen,
Zwei Verlobte sich entschlossen
Zu vermaehlen, und bereits,
In Amerika, nicht der Schweiz.

Segelfertig mit dem Schatz,
In Antwerpen, der Hafen-platz.
In seinen Weg das Schicksal fiel;
Versetzte ihn ins Trauerspiel.

Ploetzlich segelte das Schiff;
Das der Verlassene nicht begriff.
Geduldig wartet viele Stunden;—
Sie war aber ihm verschwunden.

Der gute Schweizer taeuschte sich.
Liebe lies ihm in dem Stich.
Bleibt kurze Frist verlassen da;
Mit sehnen nach Amerika.

Ungluecck hat sie ueberwalten;
Ewig war sie ihm verhalten;
Er hoffte, und zu finden glaubte,
Das was ihm das Schicksal raubte.

Ernstlich reiste den Ozean;
In Philadelphia landet an.
Fasste Mut; der Fiter treibt;
Zum Abenteuer alles schreibt.

Abenteurer schafft mit Fleisz,
Im Geschaeft's u. Handelskreis.
Die Landes sprache bald empfing;
Alsbald zum Schweizer Consul ging.

Welcher, ein ehrwuerd'ger Herr;
Wie ein Freund edwidert er;—
"Geh durch's Land, verkaufe Waaren!
"Du wirst dann von ihr erfahren."

"Kommst vielleicht auf ihre Spur".
Enttaeuschung aber folgte nur.
Kam der Vorschlag doch gelegen;
Geschaeftserfolg nicht verlegen.

Reiste oft noch durch das Land;
Schliesslich zu dem Vaterland.
Zum Verwandtenkreise; heim.
Im Canton Aargau; Schafisheim.

Von ILLINOIS erzaehlte viel;
"Dort, erreicht man seinen ziel."
Jene horchten, sammten u. bereits,
Bald Abschied sagten ihrer Schweiz.

In Achtzehn-achtzehn fruch Jahr;
Es war am siebenten Januar,
Kamen Wildi, Herdi u. Verwandten;
Weiber, Kinder, Schwaeger, Tanten.

Noch ein Wildi; Sparr u. Baumann;
Mit den ander'n Schweizer kamen.
Zum Steiner aber nicht verwandt;
Noch Rudolf Wildi, erst genannt.

DER ERSTE SCHWEIZER auf den DEUTSCH HUEGEL

Spaeter doch fast all' verwandt;
Ist Vielen heute wohlbekannt.
Baumann nahm zum Weib Susann;
Sam Wildi war ihr zweiter Mann

Zog nach St. Louis Mutter Sparr;
Der Sohn mit einverstanden war.
Dessen Wohlstand weit bekannt;
War als Schreiber sehr gewandt.

Im guten oder schlechten Wetter,
Hauten Baeume, Bloecke, Bretter;
Bauten Haueser, Staelle, Zaunen,—
Die Schweizer all' in besten Launen.

Steiner war den allen Paten;
Etablierte ein Kaufmann's-laden.
Erfolgreich; was dem noch betrefft,
In Kaskaskia sein Zweig-geschaeft.

Steiner kauft' Regierungsland,
Fuer sich und seine Schweizer-band
Pflugten, eggten, saehten, ernten;
Von Ackerbau noch manches lernten.

Doch, alles war zu grosze Freude,
Fuer die gute Schweizer-leute.
Was Steiner gern organisierte,
Das Schicksal ploetzlich da zerstoerte.

Steiner reitet, voll Vertrauen;
In dunkler Nacht; doch ohne Grauen.
Nach Kaskaskia, treu der Pflicht;—
Dem nahen Ungluecck ahnte nicht.

Wurde auf dem Weg gefunden;
Schon erlegen seiner wunden.
Das Opfer fruch der Tapferkeit;
In der Bluethe seiner Lebenszeit.

Treuer Freund, in Not und Tat;
Sprach immer Trost u. wusste Rat.
Verloren. Einen Stuetzen ploetzlich;
Den Verwandten ganz entsetzlich.

Ehrenwerthe Landsleut haben,
Ihn im Fichten-wald begraben.
Doch findet man kein Zeichen hier,
Vom Grab des braven Pionier.

Kein Baum beschattet dessen Grab;
Kein Stein; nicht ein Buch stab,
In Marmor kuenstlich ziselliert,
Noch in hoelzern Brett graviert.

An hundert Jahren Erd enthuellte,
Baumann, Sam und Rudolf Wildi.
Zum Andenken steht kein Stein;
Geschichtlich muss das Denkmal sein.

Zeiten war'n verantwortlich;
Ein zartes Denkmal, sicherlich,—
Brett von Holz, damals errichtet,
Wetter mit der Zeit vernichtet.

Bald kam noch ein Landsmann an;
Peter Baumann war der Mann.
Aus Lenzburg stammte, nah Aarau;
An der Aare; Canton Aargau.

Ein Neffe Steiner's; auch gewandt;
Wie vom Himmel ward gesandt.
Glaubte Geschulte Arbeit waehlen;
Die Andere sich stets sauer quaelen.

Selbst geschult in seiner Jugend;
In Wissenschaften u. der Tugend.
Die erste Schule etablierte;
Hier die erste Kinder lehrte.

Schliesslich schreiben wir den Schlusz;
Raum wird theuer, und man musz,
Mit den letzten Zeilen streben,
Glueckwuenschen denen die noch leben.

Kindes-kinder sind noch zwei;
Die hier wohnen nah dabei.
Beide nah an achtzig Jahren.
Mag der Herr sie lang bewahren.

Herman was enroute from Sunnyvale, California, to Fort Knox, Kentucky, for additional training, but intended to stop off in Wichita, Kansas, for a short visit.

Following description of the accident was given in the Wichita Eagle:

Salt Lake City, May 2:

Seventeen shattered bodies were removed today from the wreckage of a United Airlines mainliner which crashed into Ensign Peak, near the Utah State Capitol, during a rain and sleet storm.

One of the victims was Lieut. Herman J. Frankenberg, 27, U.S. Army, Wichita, Kansas.

All aboard the plane, 13 adult passengers, a one year old boy, and the crew of three were killed.

The plane, piloted by Capt. Don Brown of San Francisco, hit 300 feet from the top of the peak as it circled in preparation to land at the Salt Lake City airport, seven miles away, on its journey from San Francisco to New York.

It smashed into the north side of the peak, which juts from the treacherous Wasatch range where three other airliners have crashed within the last five years.

Mrs. Jacobine Wildy and her granddaughter Ruby Wildy

MEMORIAL SERVICES

Last Sabbath afternoon according to arrangements, memorial services were held in the M. E. Church, to commemorate the life of Mrs. Jacobine Wildy, deceased. The exercises were under the auspices of the Willard W. C. T. U., of which she was a member, Mrs. Fulton, President, officiating. They were the most impressive ceremonies that we have ever witnessed here. Grandma Wildy was a woman of an exceptional Christian character. She was a member of the German M. E. church of Dutch Hill. She was left a widow with eight small children in 1866 to care for: Alex, John, Mary, Albert, Herman, Frank, Emilie and Calvin. To see the children, is all that is necessary to tell the story of what she oft told her friends what she did when bereft of her husband. "I went to the Lord and said, here I am, fulfill thy promise to the widow, and He did." Upon her death bed she often said when speaking of her children, "I am paid, amply paid, if my Saviour wants me, I am ready to go." Whenever she saw anyone reeling upon the streets under the influence of liquor she would immediately offer up a prayer and cry out, "Lord have mercy upon their souls, they know not what they doeth." To be in her company was a pleasure to anyone; full of brightness, full of love, full of advice to the wanderer, and full of the Holy Spirit. The exercises were two hours long, yet they were so interesting that the thronged church did not weary to hear the eulogies passed upon her by her many friends. The Reverends J. W. McIntosh, C. D. Shumard and Schmitt, Pastor of the German M. E. church, eulogizing. Grandma Wildy was truly a Christian woman, loved by all who knew her. We never heard in all of our acquaintance with her of 22 years, one disgraceful word spoken against her. Oh! could all lives be as full of Christ's spirit as was hers. Charity would not be called for once in a thousand times. Jails, penitentiaries, almshouses and asylums would crumble with decay for want of occupants; life would be worth living for; our sacrifices would be nothing; civilization would grow; everybody would love everybody; death would be no "sting," it would be hailed with glory hallalujah. It was convincing to the unprejudiced mind to be with grandma, that there was a reality in religion. Her children are all grown up now, and are following the teachings of a loving, prayerful mother, honored Christian people. She taught her children that "earth was not men's own abiding place, Heaven was our home." "A Christian life is laid in the loom of time, to a pattern which he does not see, but God; and his heart is a shuttle. On one side of the loom is sorrow, and on the other is joy; and the shuttle, struck alternately by each, flies back and forth, carrying the thread, which is white and black, as the pattern needs and, in the end, when God shall lift up the finished garment, and all its changing hues shall glance out, it will then appear that the deep and dark colors were as needful to beauty as the bright and higher colors."

"Beautiful toiler, thy work all done,

Beautiful soul into glory gone,

Beautiful life with its crown now won, God giveth thee rest.

Rest from all sorrows and watching and tears,

Rest from all possible sighing and tears,

Rest through God's endless wonderful years,

At home with the blest."

THE BLESSED LIFE

1. Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.
2. But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.
3. And he shall be like a tree planteth by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.
4. The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.
5. Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
6. For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish. — Psalm 1

GOD'S WORD REVEALED

1 The heavens declare the glory of God;
and his firmament sheweth his handywork.

2 Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge.

3 There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.

4 Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their word to the end of the world.
In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun.

5 Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.

6 His going forth is from the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it:
and there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.

7 The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul:
the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

8 The statues of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart:
the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

9 The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever:
the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold:
sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

11 Moreover by them is thy servant warned:
and in keeping of them there is great reward.

12 Who can understand his errors?
cleanse thou me from secret faults.

13 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me:
then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.

14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer.

Psalm 19.

THE DIVINE KING

1 The earth is the Lords, and the fulness thereof;
the world, and they that dwell therein.

2 For he hath founded it upon the seas,
and established it upon the floods.

3 Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord?
or who shall stand in his holy place?

4 He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart;
who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

5 He shall receive the blessing from the Lord, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

6 This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Jacob. Selah.

7 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

8 Who is this King of glory?
The Lord strong and mighty, the Lord mighty in battle.

9 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors;
and the King of glory shall come in.

10 Who is this King of glory?
The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah.

Psalm 24.

THE MAGNIFICAT
BEAUTIFUL SONG OF MARY

And Mary said,

"My soul doth magnify the Lord,

And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden:
for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath done to me great things;
and holy is his name.

And his mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation.

He hath shewed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

He hath filled the hungry with good things;
and the rich he hath sent empty away.

He hath holpen his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy;

As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever." Luke 1: 46-55

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men. Luke 2:14

PRAISE AND ADORATION

1. Bless the Lord, O my soul: and all that is within me, bless his holy name.
2. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits.
3. Who forgiveth all thine iniquities: who healeth all thy diseases;
4. Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; who crowneth thee with loving kindness and tender mercies;
5. Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.
6. The Lord executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed.
7. He made known his ways unto Moses, his acts unto the children of Israel.
8. The Lord is mereiful and gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy.
9. He will not always chide: neither will he keep his anger forever.
10. He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.
11. For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy toward them that fear him.
12. As far as the east is from the west, so far hath he removed our transgressions from us.
13. Like as a father pitieth his children, so the Lord pitieth them that fear him.
14. For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust.
15. As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.
16. For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; and the place thereof shall know it no more.
17. But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children.
18. To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to keep them.
19. The Lord hath prepared his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom ruleth over all.
20. Bless the Lord, ye his angels, that excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.
21. Bless ye the Lord, all ye his hosts; ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.
22. Bless the Lord, all his works in all places of his dominion bless the Lord, O my soul.
